John Simpſon, from London, an aſſortment of exceeding fine gold and ſilver WATCHES, which he will ſell very reaſonable, and warrant their goodneſs 69—75.

LONDON, NOVEMBER 13.

IT having been obſerved in company ſome time ago, that fortune had been very favourable to the Majority, in the deaths of the E— of Hardwicke, the Duke of Devonſhire, and Mr. Legge; and that the important life of the Duke of C——d was deſpaired of, a celebrated wit replied, that the minority had likewiſe had ſome lucky hits in the deceaſe of the Earl of E——t, Lord B——th, and Sir John Phillips; and that the Pretender was given over by his phyſicians.

NOVEMBER 15.

It is reported that a categorical anſwer was yeſterday bro't over from the courts of France and Spain, relative to the payment of the ſubſiſtence money due for the priſoners of the former, and the ranſom of the Manillas, both which, according to this report, have been abſolutely refuſed by the ſaid powers.

Tueſday night died at his houſe near the Rolls buildings in Chancery-lane, the Right Hon. Sir Thomas Clark, Maſter of the Rolls, one of his Majeſty's Moſt Honourable Privy Council.

On Saturday the 3d inſtant died at Newent, in Glouceſterſhire, Joſeph Rudge, aged 107. He retained all his faculties until a few hours before his death, and worked at his trade of a taylor, till about four years ago, without the aſſiſtance of ſpectacles, which he never wore. He had two wives, by whom he had children, and great grand children, ſons, and by his laſt wife had three children born after he was eighty years of age; the laſt of which was born when he was eighty-five. Some time before his death he loſt the nails of his hands and feet, and afterwards had new ones the ſame as a young infant, and till about a year before his death, he had his mouth full of teeth, ſound and good.

It is now ſaid that the alteration at court is, that the Earl of Middleſex is to be firſt lord of the treaſury, in the room of Mr. Grenville, who ſucceeded his lordſhip in Mr. Pelham's adminiſtration. And that the earl of Northumberland goes again as Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

NOVEMBER 17.

The talk is again revived that the Favourite will be made Lord Chamberlain.

It is ſaid Commodore Harriſon will ſoon be created an Admiral.

It is ſaid a liſt of all ſuch Britiſh artificers as have been known to have retired out of the kingdom ſince the peace, and are now in France, is preparing to be laid before the parliament.

It is ſaid the ſalary intended to be ſettled on his Royal Highneſs Prince William, on his aſſuming the title of the Duke of Glouceſter, will be 25,500 l. the ſame as his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland enjoyed before the rebellion, in 1745

The late Sir Thomas Clarke was taken ill whilſt kneeling at his devotion in the Rolls chapel on Sunday laſt. Being carried home, he ordered doctor Watſon to be ſent for; and after the doctor had preſcribed what he thought proper, Sir Thomas acquainted him he had no will by him, and deſired he would write down what he ſhould mention. The firſt bequeſt was, to St. Luke's hoſpital for Lunaticks, 30,000 l. He deſired the doctor to accept of 20 guineas for a ring; and left the apothecary who attended him 20 l. his houſekeeper 500 l. and his porter 100 l. and the reſt and reſidue of all his monies and eſtates whatſoever to the Right Hon. the Earl of Macclesfield.

The late Mr. Churchill has left all his manuſcripts to Mr. Wilkes; ſuch of them as he ſhall approve, to be printed. And we likewiſe hear that Mr. Wilkes is writing the hiſtory of England from the revolution.

NOVEMBER 20.

A letter from Geneva mentions, that the celebrated Voltaire intended ſpeedily to write a tragedy on the ſtory of Charles the firſt, which is to be called "The Fate of Tyranny;" and the ſame letter adds, that he has already ſketched an outline of the performance.

A certain diſtinguiſhed Nobleman, we hear, is ſtill intended for the office of ——; the only obſtacle, it ſeems, is to procure a reſignation, which becomes every day more and more difficult. Various are the offers that have been made for this purpoſe, all which the noble Lord in poſſeſſion, and his friends, have hitherto thought proper to refuſe.

NOVEMBER 22.

Letters from Liſbon adviſe, that the miſunderſtanding between that court and Madrid, is in conſequence of an expreſs from Brazil, that the Spaniards have actually commenced ſome hoſtilities on the ſide of Nova Colonia.

The honourable Judge Barthurſt is now talked of to ſucceed the maſter of the Rolls.

We hear that the honourable Mr. Yorke was yeſterday at St. James's, and it is thought that he will ſoon be reinſtated in the poſt he hath already filled with ſo much honour and reputation.

It is ſaid ſome diſpatches of importance were received laſt Saturday from the court of Berlin, which had already occaſioned three grand councils to be held at St. James's.

It is ſaid that an account has been taken of all the waſte lands in England, with the number of acres they contain, in order to be laid before the parliament for their conſideration.

Yeſterday ſe'ennight died at Lancaſter the celebrated Doct. Bracken; a gentleman well known on account of his literary productions, as well as his uncommon abilities in his profeſſion; but not more remarkable for the extenſiveneſs of his knowledge, than for his humanity to the poor, and the moderation of his charges, always purſuing that equitable rule, of proportioning his bills according to the circumſtances of his patients. By his death the corporation of Lancaſter has loſt a worthy magiſtrate, who may be replaced; but the loſs of the adjoining country muſt remain irreparable.

A fine new 90 gun ſhip is now building at Woolwich, which, when finiſhed, will be called the Queen, in honour of her Majeſty.

On Tueſday laſt at half paſt ſix at night, two men, one named F—g—ſ—n, and the other B—ll, followed by ſome others, came into Mr. Eddowes's houſe in Scotland-yard, Whitehall, ſaying, they had orders from L— S—d—ch to ſeek there for, arreſt, or take alive, or dead (as F—g—n himſelf ſaid) the Chevalier D'Eon! They came up into the dining-room, where they found Mrs. Eddowes and two gentlemen; they began by ordering, in L— S—d—'s name, all the doors in the houſe to be opened: Mrs. Eddowes anſwered, "Gentlemen, do your "duty, but take care what you do, the room oppoſite to this "contains papers and money belonging to the King. The "Chevalier D'Eon is not here, it is more than two months "ſince I have ſeen him." Which not regarding, they forced open the door, broke it, and even would have opened the bureau, and the cloſet, containing the ſaid papers and money; and not finding in that room what they ſought for (the Chevalier D'Eon) they made a ſearch by force thro' the whole houſe, they had the aſſurance to threaten Mrs. Eddowes, and carried their violence even into Mr. Eddowes's room, who has been bed-ridden theſe ſix years. Never was inſult carried to ſuch exceſs as that of F—g—n, B—ll and their crew, during more than an hour.

NOVEMBER 24.

Yeſterday the Lord Chancellor waited on his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter at Leiceſter-Houſe with his patent. The eſtabliſhment of his Royal Highneſs's houſhold is as follows.

Treaſurer, Edward Le Grand, Eſq.
Grooms of the Bedchamber, Col. Clinton and Col. Ligonier.
Equerries, Capt. Cox and Capt. Blackwood.
Secretary, Reverend Mr. Duval.

It is confidently ſaid the court of Madrid have finally propoſed ſuch terms of payment for the ranſom of the Manillas, as our miniſtry, conſiſtent either with their own honour, or that of the nation, can by no means accept.

It is ſaid that the court of Great-Britain will remonſtrate, by the Earl of Hertford, at Verſailles, againſt the landing any French troops on the iſland of Corſica; and if this application ſhould prove ineffectual, that Commodore Harriſon will have orders to appear, with his ſquadron, before Genoa to the ſame purpoſe, with the additional circumſtance of remonſtrating by the mouth of his cannon, if the other means ſhould fail.

Various are the reports concerning the cauſe and manner of the ſearch and forcible entry into the houſe of Mr. Eddowes, of Scotland-yard, Whitehall: Some pretend, that by a new kind of cartel between the two A——— of F—— and E———, an exchange of delinquents, inſtead of priſoners, was propoſed, and that Monſieur D'Eon was to be given up in return for the perſon of John Wilkes, Eſq; ſome ſay, that a mere ſeizure of papers was intended, and aſſert the papers in queſtion to be certain original letters which paſſed in a correſpondence between an eminent Commoner, lately deceaſed, at Turnbridge-Wells, and a noble Earl in the neighbourhood of Audley Chapel.

NOVEMBER 27.

Sunday there was a great court at St. James's, when his royal highneſs the duke of Glouceſter made his firſt appearance at court under that title; his royal highneſs went in a grand new coach, attended by the gentlemen of his houſhold. And it being his royal highneſs's birth-day, their majeſties and the princeſs dowager of Wales received the compliments of the nobility and gentry on the occaſion.

It is ſaid his royal highneſs the duke of York has declared his intention of making the tour of England, Scotland, and Ireland, the enſuing ſummer: it is further ſaid that he will be attended with a grand retinue.

It is reported that his royal highneſs the duke of Glouceſter intends, after the example of his brother the duke of York, to make a tour abroad next ſummer, ſome ſay to Berlin, upon a particular invitation from the king of Pruſſia.

It is ſaid, that the revenues of the biſhoprick of Oſnabrug, which, we are informed, are actually thirty-ſix thouſand pounds per annum, clear, will be placed in the funds, during the minority of the preſent prince biſhop.

Laſt week James Stewart, Eſq; architect and painter, was appointed ſerjeant painter to his Majeſty, in the room of William Hogarth, Eſq; deceaſed.

It is confidently ſaid, a very material alteration will ſoon take place, with regard to the mode of collection of his Majeſty's revenue of exciſe, and far more conſiſtent with the idea of Britiſh liberty.

It is ſaid, that, ſoon after the meeting of parliament, every pariſh in England will be ordered to give in a liſt of their healthy poor of both ſexes, from fifteen to forty-five years old; when ſuch of them as are deemed capable of being uſeful abroad, will be ſhipt off, at the government's expence for the Britiſh colonies in America.

NOVEMBER 29.

We are informed, that for the future no more forty gun ſhips of the new conſtruction are to be built in any port of the kingdom, their lower tier having been found quite uſeleſs in the leaſt blowing weather.

We hear it has lately been reſolved in council, to render the iſland of Minorca a compleat magazine for the future ſupply of his Majeſty's fleets in the Mediterranean, with all kinds of naval ſtores: both wet and dry docks are alſo conſtructing, capable of careening ſhips of the line.

It is ſaid the Tobacco trade will certainly be exonerated next ſeſſions, both to the original planter and importer.

Orders were this week diſpatched to Portſmouth, for the immediate construction of several large cutters, capable of mounting twelve carriage guns.

The Sieur Richter, of Berlin, has invented a new method of building under water, and his plans have been examined by the Royal Academy of Sciences, who have declared that the invention is of the utmost importance, and must be attended with very great advantages.

It is positively averred that one party is entirely secure of a political prevalence: But by others it is asserted to be extremely doubtful, as they alledge all depends on the fixed adherence of one person, whose stability is much doubted on one side, and as much feared on the other.

DECEMBER 1.

They write from France, that the Spaniards are certainly meditating some important conquest on the coast of Barbary, to be vigorously executed early in the spring.

It is said some important dispatches were sent off this week to the Governor of Gibraltar, where, we are informed, the same precautions are to be taken, as are now used in the several dock-yards in this kingdom.

There is not the least truth in the various reports about Mr. Wilkes being to leave France. So far from it, he will certainly reside in some of the nearest ports of that kingdom to the English shore, during the whole next session of parliament.

The new king of Poland has invited several of the English nobility and gentry to his coronation, particularly the hon. C. Y.

Mr. W. is said to have announced Mr. Churchill's death to a great genius here in town, in the following laconic epistle: "Dear Bob, damn'd hard times!—Churchill is dead; Ll— in "the fleet; and Wilkes little better than a transport for life. "——Damn'd hard times indeed!"

A Scotch Shoemaker has contrived an Instrument of war, by means of which six persons are to do as much execution as a whole regiment. This Instrument, if we may believe the projector, will discharge 4400 balls in the space of two minutes; is quite portable and easy of carriage; in case of a surprize may be knocked to pieces in less than a moment's space, so as to render it entirely useless to the enemy; and if recovered again by any change in the field, may be set together in less than a minute and a half, so as to be fit for use as before. In case also of any sudden charge either by horse or foot during the intervals of loading, at the touch of a spring a harvest of bayonets are to arise with their points directed towards the foe. To this the inventor, who, though a shoemaker, is likewise a military man, has added a system of discipline, relative to the use of this machine, perfectly easy and speedy to be learnt.

The names, number, and particular country of all the foreigners, now employed in his Majesty's yards and garrisons, are ordered to be given in with all expedition.

It is said a stop is going to be put to the farther exportation of Irish timber to France or Spain.

DECEMBER 4.

It is asserted, that if there is not a speedy alteration in the face of affairs, with respect to France and Spain, and the schemes supposed to be meditating by them against Great-Britain and Portugal, three squadrons will put to sea; one intended for the Mediterranean, another for the West-Indies, and a third for Channel service.

Saturday last the Right Hon. Lord Chief Justice Pratt appointed Tuesday sennight for the trial of Mr. Beardmore's and the other causes against the Earl of Halifax and the Messengers. The pleadings in these causes are near 600 sheets of paper.

DECEMBER 6.

By letters from Berlin we are told, that near all the sick people in the general hospital, which was destroyed by the late dreadful fire at Konigsberg, perished in the flames; but the number was not yet known, any more than that of the persons who were lost in attempting to get them out.

They write from Parma, that the Duke declared, on the 30th of October last, the marriage of the princess his daughter, with the prince of Austrias, heir to the crown of Spain. She was born Nov. the 11th, 1748.

An eminent Dutch merchant's house here, drew on France, on Friday last, bills of exchange to the amount of one million and an half of livres, about 62,500 l. sterling.)

Private letters from Portugal mention, that the court of Lisbon seem very apprehensive of some hostile attempt upon the Madeira's, and are taking measures accordingly.

Experiments are now making at Portsmouth on divers kinds of timber, lately imported from North-America, which, if found answerable, we hear, will be made use of in the dock-yards, and the importation of American timber encouraged by the government.

A short time since a young clergyman, about 25 years of age enlisted himself as a private soldier in the first regiment of foot-guards.

An attempt has lately been made to render a certain popular gentleman (now in exile) a bankrupt, but being laid before council for opinion, proved abortive.

We are informed, that some gentlemen of the minority club, have begun a subscription, for erecting a monument in Westminster-Abbey, to the memory of the late celebrated Mr. Churchill.

Yesterday there was a grand Board of Treasury at the Cockpit, Whitehall, which did not break up till very late.

The French are going to make some alterations in their public funds, which gives great uneasiness to the people concerned.

It is said a scheme is to be laid before the parliament for erecting, in two or three principal towns in every county in England, magazines for the reception of corn, to be purchased at times of the greatest plenty, and to be delivered out to the poor in times of scarcity at a moderate price.

Orders are given for all ships of war capable of service to be immediately fitted for the sea; and we hear an extra board of Admiralty will be held in a few days for appointing their stations.

To the PRINTER.

HA! Mr. Printer, is it come to this at last! And is there really nothing in all we have been lately told, of some great doings upon the carpet? —— Portugal dreads a Spanish invasion; Spain opens all British letters; the dock-yards, men of war, and magazines are strictly guarded; the king's troops of horse attendants doubled; dispatches upon dispatches received, and sent off; men of war fitting out; the workmen at Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Chatham, increased; important secret machination at Versailles; extraordinary cabinet councils; boards of trade and treasury at home; and all for nothing! This is such a bare-faced political humbug, that——but I have done; for we are positively told, there is nothing at all in it; and on my conscience, I am of opinion that, were another army of rebels at Derby, and the French actually landed in Suffolk, we should be told the same tale. I am, Sir,

Your old correspondent,
THOMAS DIDIMUS.

DECEMBER 8.

We hear that hatbands and gloves are sent to all the K—'s Messengers; they being to attend the Funeral of Secretary of States Warrants, on Tuesday next.

The public may rest perfectly satisfied that these kingdoms very speedily and most certainly will, or will not, be involved in another bloody and expensive war.

At the meeting of the commissioners of bankruptcy, when Mr. Kearsly (who had been abroad some months) surrendered to the statute, the celebrated Mr. Foote appeared as a creditor, and was of no little service to Mr. Kearsly in throwing the company into good humour, and remonstrating on Mr. Kearsly's having fallen a martyr to the cause of Liberty. He began his oration with "Gentlemen, it is a very common case for "a Bookseller to be seen amongst the creditors of an Author, "but for once—strange to tell! you see an Author amongst the "creditors of a Bookseller."

DECEMBER 11.

They write from Warsaw of the 17th ult. that besides the 10,000 Russians quartered in that neighbourhood, several thousand more were expected from Russia and Volhinia to grace the coronation of the King of Poland.

They write from Ratisbon of the 26th ult. that the Emperor had conferred the vacant government of the Imperial Forrests of Philipsbourg, on Prince George of Hesse Darmstadt.

By letters from Brunswick it appears, that such cattle as have been well fumigated with burning tar, (an experiment lately practised with success,) avoid the infection: When every other means to prevent the distemper have proved abortive.

Letters from Paris mention, that the French King had agreed to discharge, at three payments, the demand of the court of Great-Britain, for maintaining the French prisoners last war; the first of which is to be made the 25th instant.

Private letters from Genoa mention, that it was thought the affairs of Corsica were in a fair way of being happily adjusted, without the landing any French troops on the island, the Corsicans wanting nothing more than the enjoyment of their estates and liberties secured to them, which, it was said, would be effectuated by the mediation of three foreign powers.

Wednesday last Col. Thomas Townshend kissed his Majesty's hand, and on Saturday he set out, by the way of France, to take upon him the command of the island of Minorca, vacant by the death of Col. Crauford.

It is said the total expulsion of the society of Jesuits from Canada, or wherever they may have like footing in any part of British America, has for some time past been upon the carpet.

We hear three English officers of distinction will speedily embark for Lisbon, to command in an expedition to the Portuguese settlements in the East-Indies.

The proposed review of the waste lands throughout England, we are informed, is with intent to raise a fresh stock of oak trees in the kingdom, particularly in places not too remote from water-carriage; the great neglect of which, and the waste already made in the royal timber, is now thought a matter of consequence not to be any longer overlooked.

Friday morning last, at two o'clock, being moon-light, Mr. Parsons, of Steeple in Essex, trotted his mare 100 miles on the Essex road, for a considerable wager: He was allowed 24 hours to do it in; but performed it in 13 hours and 28 minutes. The 20 last miles he trotted in two hours eight minutes. The road fixed on was from the Swan at Ingatestone, to the Cork at Boreham.

The True Briton, Harbison, from the Havana to London, foundered, six weeks ago, off the Groyne. There were several passengers on board, most of whom were saved by their providently falling in with a French scooner when she was sinking, who made three trips with her boat, and brought away above forty persons; but when she was going the fourth time, she fell on her broad side, and went down directly with 13 hands and the first mate in her. Her cargo consisted of 1900 chests of white sugar, hides, and other goods, and above 70,000 l. in dollars. There was about 120,000 l. insured on the above ship.

The people, in whose department it is to look after our magazines, have been very busy for some days in removing the powder out of one of the large magazines (which is very near three blacksmith's shops) into smaller magazines farther from us.

It is now reported, that one million only will be raised for the service of next year, on an entire new plan, being a lottery of six per cent. life annuities. Tickets at 10 l. each, and the blanks to be called 5 l. which will bring in the proprietor six shillings per annum during life.

This day came on in the court of common pleas at Guildhall, the causes between the Rev. Mr. Entick, Mr. Beardmore, Mr. Wilson, Mr. Fell, and Beardmore's Clerk, against the Earl of Halifax and others; but were not ended when this paper went to press.

Bristol, Dec. 8. Tuesday morning the wife of Mr. Plomer, in Unity-street, St. Philip's, was delivered of a girl; and in about twelve hours afterwards she was also delivered of two more and a boy. They were baptised by the names of Hannah, Sarah, Mary, and William; and, with the mother, are all likely to do well.

RUN AWAY from the subscriber about three weeks ago, a negro fellow named JACK, very well known in Charles-Town, and on James Island, where he may probably produce forged tickets. Whoever will deliver him to me, at my plantation on James-Island, or to the warden of the work-house, in Charles-Town, shall have FIVE POUNDS reward. And, if any person will give information of his being harboured, by a white person, a reward of TEN POUNDS, or if by a negro, FIVE POUNDS will be given, on conviction of the offender or offenders. GEORGE RUSSELL.

THE subscriber, intending to move the chief of his negroes to the Southward, will dispose of the front part of his plantation, lying at the mouth of Wappoo Creek, opposite Charles-Town, containing about 400 acres, ready for planting. As it's to be supposed, no one will buy it without viewing it, (and as it will recommend itself) there needs no further description. Part of the stock of cattle and sheep, inferior to none in the province, with some working oxen, &c. Any person inclinable to purchase any of the premises, may apply to JOHN HARVEY.

Who is in immediate want of an OVERSEER, that understands the management of indico, and will give good encouragement.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber in George-Town, the 24th of December 1764, a likely, sensible, young negro man, named PETER; about five feet three inches high, of a very black complexion, formerly waiting man to the honourable John Cleland, Esq: he had on when he went away a blue cloth surtout coat and breeches, check'd shirt, shoes and stockings; but as he has a variety of other cloaths with him, it's not possible to describe him by his dress: He has a brother at Mr. Alexander Peronneau's, and many acquaintances in Charles-Town, where he has lately been seen; he is likewise acquainted at Mrs. Johnson's up the Path, and at Mr. John Rose's, on Hobcaw, and at those places is supposed to be harboured. Whoever will apprehend, and deliver the said fellow to me in George-Town, or to the warden of the work-house in Charles-Town, shall be rewarded with TEN POUNDS currency; and whoever gives information of his being harboured or entertained by a white person, shall have FIFTY POUNDS, or by a negro, TEN POUNDS currency, to be paid on conviction of the offender. All Captains of vessels and others, are hereby forwarned from taking him off the province, as they may depend on being prosecuted with the utmost rigour that the law admits. THOMAS GODFREY.

Brought to the Work-House.

Feb. 20th. Two new negro fellows, one named DICK, the other's name unknown; one is pretty tall, the other middle sized: They have on white negro cloth jackets and trowsers, with white metal buttons, and blue woollen caps, and blankets; they are branded on the right breast with I B, supposed to belong to one Jonathan Bolton, of Purrysburgh-Township. Taken up at Mr. Jermyn Wright's plantation, near Savannah-River.

Feb. 23d. An elderly negro fellow, of the Angola country, named CAESAR; says he belongs to Mr. William Jamieson, at George-Town, Winyah, and has been in the woods these two years: He says there were two more fellows ran away with him, named POMPEY and COAK, and that Francis Kinloch, Esq; bought him here, and sent him to Mr. Jamieson, in George-Town; has filed teeth, and is all in rags, except a blue indico cloth about his middle. Taken up near Mr. Conrad Wilmer's in Amelia-Township.

CHARLES-TOWN, FEBRUARY 25, 1765.

N. B. He has also lately imported from Jamaica, a Seroon of exceeding good Jesuits Bark.

WALDREN and BOUNETHEAU,

Beg leave to give this public notice to their friends,

THAT they have entered into co-partnership, in the factorage business, which they intend carrying on in all its branches, having supplied themselves with good boats for that purpose, and a convenient compting house on Mr. Motte's wharf: Those gentlemen that are pleased to employ them, may depend on the strictest adherence to their interest, and they flatter themselves to be able to give intire satisfaction.—They will engage to load any vessels wanting lumber, on as short notice as can be possible, with as merchantable lumber as any in the province, and on the safest terms. t. f.

NORTHWARD and WEST-INDIA RUM, in hogsheads and quarter-casks, LOAF SUGAR by the hundred weight, VIDONIA and PYAL WINES in pipes and quarter-casks, Northward CHEESE, MACKAREL, CHOCOLATE by the box or dozen, with sundry OTHER ARTICLES, all but lately imported, will be sold on the most reasonable terms, on the BAY, by ctf, DAVID STODDARD.

[illegible]AL WINES, equal in quality [illegible]donia, to be sold cheap, by SHIRLEY & MARTIN.

[illegible]RAH HATFIELD, Milliner,

BEGS leave to acquaint the ladies, that she is removed from her shop in Tradd-Street, into Broad-street, opposite to Mr. Thomas Adam, merchant, and returns thanks to all her friends and customers for all their past favours, which she hopes for a continuance of. She will make it her study to give entire satisfaction to all ladies who please to favour her with their custom.

N. B. The shop she lived in, in Tradd-Street, is to be let and entered upon immediately. For further particulars inquire as above, or at Mr. William Baker's, merchant.

ALL persons having any demands against the estate of Mr. William Hayne, deceased, are desired to send them in properly attested, to Mary Hayne, Executrix, at Mr. Thomas Bullin's, in Goose-Creek, or to John Edwards, merchant, in Charles-Town, that they may be settled; and those who are any ways indebted to the said estate, are desired to discharge the same immediately.

INFORMATION has been given me, of three stray'd steers, two brinded, and one red and white, mark'd with a crop in one ear and underkeel in the other, all unbranded. Also a roan horse about thirteen hands and a half high, branded I. G. on the thigh, the owner must apply to Feb. 5th, 1765. THOMAS HUTCHINSON, J. P.

THE subscriber is in immediate want of an OVERSEER, for his plantation near Bacon-Bridge. None need apply who is not well recommended; but one properly recommended and approved of, will meet with suitable encouragement, from HENRY SMITH.

TO BE SOLD,

A Tract of land in St. Helena's parish, about four miles from Bee's-Creek, containing 1678 acres, chiefly rich high and low land, with two plantations on it, well fenced, two good dwelling-houses, two large barns, and six sets of indico vats; all these improvements new. There is 200 acres of rice land in good planting order; also 100 acres of fresh indico land, all which will be planted this season, a reserve of water convenient to both plantations; the lands not inferior to any in the province. Any person inclinable to purchase the said tract of land, may apply to DRURY DUNN.

WHEREAS very little regard has been paid to the advertisement of the Bridge Commissioners, in St. George's parish, impowering the subscribers to receive the assessment for repairing the bridges in the said parish. This is to give Notice to every person concerned, That if they do not pay their assessments by the 4th March, executions will certainly be issued against them, by the commissioners.

February JOHN JOOR.

4th, 1765. WILLIAM JOOR.

MR. WILLIAM GAMBLE, of William's-burg township, informs me of a bay horse, mealy mouth'd and flank'd, some grey hairs in his tail, twelve hands high, five years old, has ranged upon the head of Bennet's swamp, in the said township, for two years past, and is unbranded. The owner must apply to HENRY CASSELS.

Just imported in the ship William, John Cathcart, master, from Glasgow, and to be sold at the store number 4, on Colonel Beale's wharf, considerably under the common price.

CHECK linen, blue and white check handkerchers, white border'd ditto, stock tape, variety of spotted, strip'd, plain and flowered gauze, Irish and Scotch linens, mens thread hose, worsted breeches patterns, Scotch ozenabrugs, sail cloth and cordage, mens shoes, cut and dry, and pigtail tobacco, Scotch snuff, an assortment of saddlery, bell's ale, and a few hogsheads best London porter.

THE Co-partnership of HOOPER, SWALLOW, & Comp. and HOOPER, SWALLOW, & POOLE, having been for some time past dissolved; and there being an absolute necessity for disposing of their remaining stock of goods on hand, in order to settle the accompts of the Co-partnership, as speedily as possible. NEWMAN SWALLOW and THOMAS POOLE, advertise them for sale, to any person who chuses to take the whole, or either of their stores separately, cheaper than they can be imported; but if they find the selling them off in that manner cannot be done, they will put up their stock at Bacon Bridge in lots, and begin selling them at vendue, on Tuesday the 26th of February, instant, and continue selling them the following days, until all be sold. The conditions of the sale are, all sums under twenty pounds to be cash, and all sums above, credit will be given for three months.

STOLEN, from Mr. Barnard Elliott's plantation, near Hurse-Savannah, the latter end of December. A likely young grey mare, four years old this grass, near fifteen hands high, branded on the mounting shoulder BE. And also a bay filley, about three years old this grass, between thirteen and fourteen hands high, branded BE. —— Whoever delivers the grey mare to me at Cane-Acre, or the overseer on the above plantation, by the first of March, shall receive Ten Pounds reward, and Forty Shillings for the bay filley. Whoever apprehends the thief, so as he may be brought to justice, shall receive One Hundred Pounds reward, from the subscriber SAMUEL ELLIOTT.
